

Brussels Office

With a global network and strong local presence, we provide our clients, from the large multinational to the small local firm, with the best specialists for their particular needs. Our philosophy is to offer clients personal and first-class advice which solves issues and contributes to their overall business objectives – anytime and anywhere.

The political and economic landscape of Europe continues to change, now more than ever. Brussels' impact on business is growing by the day, yet the decision-making process remains obscure and difficult to navigate. Bringing together a broad range of professionals, our team offers the know-how necessary for staying ahead of EU developments.

Kreab Brussels opened in 1992 and is today one of the top-five European affairs consultancies – a position our clients benefit from every day.
