

Digital Economy - DFS 25

European agency to hold forum on privacy

The European Union Agency for Network and Information Security (ENISA) has announced that it will hold the Annual Privacy Forum (APF) on 7-8 June 2017 in Vienna. Ahead of this, the agency has made a call for papers that present original work on data protection and privacy themes.

European supervisor proposes digital format for financial reporting

The European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) published a feedback statement laying out the digital format issuers within the EU will be required to use to report company information. This is set to take effect as of 1 January 2020.